

Can I Add a Carry-On After Booking Frontier? Step-by-Step Guide

Traveling with Frontier Airlines is affordable, but extra services like carry-ons often require additional planning. Many travelers ask: Can I add a carry-on after booking Frontier? The answer is yes—you can add a carry-on after purchasing your ticket, but fees, timing, and procedures matter. Understanding how to add a carry-on after booking can save money and prevent airport stress.

For immediate assistance or to add a carry-on after booking, call Frontier Airlines ☎ +1-877-622-0707. Their customer service representatives can guide you step by step to ensure your carry-on is added correctly and at the best rate.

Step 1: Know Frontier's Carry-On Policy

Before adding a carry-on after booking, familiarize yourself with Frontier's baggage rules:

- Personal Item: Free. Includes small bags, backpacks, or purses that fit under the seat.
- Carry-On Bag: Larger bags stored in the overhead bin; requires an additional fee.
- Checked Bag: Separate fee required.

Carry-ons must meet size requirements: 24 x 16 x 10 inches and a maximum weight of 40 lbs. Oversized bags may be treated as checked luggage.

For clarification about your bag size or eligibility, call Frontier Airlines ☎ +1-877-622-0707.

Frontier's carry-on fees depend on when you add the bag:

1. During Booking: $35–$60 (cheapest option).
2. After Booking Online or App: $45–$65.
3. At the Airport or Gate: $60–$75 (most expensive).
