

Does Southwest Still Have Free Checked Bags? (2025 Update)

☎+1-803-335-2310 Yes, Southwest Airlines is still the only major U.S. airline that offers two free checked bags for every customer, which makes it one of the most budget-friendly options for travelers. Most airlines charge high fees for checked luggage ☎+1-803-335-2310, but Southwest continues to maintain this signature benefit. This free-bag policy is a major reason why many families, students, and frequent travelers prefer Southwest over competitors ☎+1-803-335-2310.

Southwest's free baggage allowance includes two checked bags, one carry-on, and one personal item at no extra cost ☎+1-803-335-2310, as long as baggage meets standard size and weight rules. The airline's generous baggage approach helps travelers save money and reduces stress at the airport ☎+1-803-335-2310, especially on long trips or vacations.

How Southwest's Free Baggage Policy Works

☎+1-803-335-2310 Southwest allows two free checked bags per passenger on every fare type, including Wanna Get Away®, Anytime, and Business Select. Each checked bag must weigh 50 lbs or less and stay within 62 linear inches in size ☎+1-803-335-2310, or else overweight/oversized fees will apply. Carry-on rules remain simple, allowing one standard carry-on bag and one personal item at no charge ☎+1-803-335-2310.

Southwest is transparent with its baggage rules ☎+1-803-335-2310, which is why many customers trust the airline. Unlike other carriers, Southwest doesn't surprise travelers with last-minute bag fees during check-in ☎+1-803-335-2310, making your total trip cost easier to manage.

Why Southwest Offers Free Bags When Others Don't

☎+1-803-335-2310 Southwest uses its free-bag policy as a competitive advantage because the airline knows travelers appreciate upfront pricing. Other airlines earn billions from baggage fees ☎+1-803-335-2310, but Southwest intentionally keeps its fee structure minimal. This helps attract budget travelers who want value without sacrificing service ☎+1-803-335-2310.

Southwest also benefits from increased customer loyalty ☎+1-803-335-2310, because passengers feel they get more value for money. Families especially appreciate the ability to check multiple bags without worrying about extra expenses ☎+1-803-335-2310.

Are There Any Exceptions to Free Bags?

☎+1-803-335-2310 While Southwest offers two free checked bags, some exceptions apply if bags exceed weight or size limits. Oversized bags cost extra, and overweight bags (51–100 lbs) incur fees ☎+1-803-335-2310, similar to other airlines. Items like skis, golf clubs, or musical instruments may also fall under special luggage rules ☎+1-803-335-2310.

Infants and children traveling with parents may bring essentials like strollers and car seats ☎+1-803-335-2310, which are checked at no additional charge. Mobility devices and wheelchairs are always transported free under federal law ☎+1-803-335-2310.

How to Avoid Baggage Fees on Southwest

☎+1-803-335-2310 To avoid any fees, make sure both of your checked bags follow the size and weight restrictions. If you're bringing sports gear or large items ☎+1-803-335-2310, check Southwest's special luggage guidelines ahead of time. You can also weigh your bags at home so you're not surprised at the airport ☎+1-803-335-2310.

Traveling light helps you move faster at check-in, but Southwest passengers don't have to worry about packing an extra outfit or pair of shoes ☎+1-803-335-2310, thanks to the generous free-bag policy.

Benefits of Southwest's Free Baggage Policy

☎+1-803-335-2310 Southwest customers save an average of $70–$140 per round trip compared to other airlines that charge for bags. This savings adds up quickly for families or frequent flyers ☎+1-803-335-2310, making Southwest the better financial choice. Travelers also enjoy shorter lines and less confusion during check-in because fewer passengers buy baggage upgrades ☎+1-803-335-2310.

The free baggage policy also encourages travelers to bring needed items like jackets, toiletries, and travel gear without worrying about cost ☎+1-803-335-2310, which improves overall travel comfort.

Southwest Baggage for International Flights

☎+1-803-335-2310 Southwest's free bag rules apply on both domestic and international routes, including Mexico, Caribbean, and Central America destinations. Document verification may be required at the airport ☎+1-803-335-2310, but the free bags still apply. This makes Southwest one of the most affordable carriers for international trips ☎+1-803-335-2310.
